

NEW!

Oxford Art Online

For all aspects of the visual arts worldwide

www.oxfordartonline.com

- ★ Forbes Best of the Web
- ★ netConnect/Library Journal "A" Rating
- ★ Choice Outstanding Academic Title

Grove Art Online

"The definitive starting point for almost any art history research. . . ."
—Booklist/Reference Books Bulletin

"A core database of enormous value. . . . The depth of information and extensive coverage of world art places this product in a class of its own."
—Library Journal/NetConnect

Grove Art Online has been the leading online resource for art research since its inception in 1998, a glorious compendium of art and art scholarship offering the full texts of the 34-volume Dictionary of Art (1996) and the Oxford Companion to Western Art (2001), as well as all subsequent updates and emendations.

Now, the new Oxford Art Online platform broadens the audience for Grove Art Online by supplementing Grove's more scholarly works with a wide range of ready-reference material geared toward undergraduates and general users. Oxford has also added a wealth of new images recommended by teachers, librarians, and eminent art historians. Grove Art Online continues to grow with a regular update program — each year, new articles are added to enhance the coverage of significant areas of the visual arts with the participation of more than 1,000 international art historians.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

- Dictionary of Art (1996)
- Oxford Companion to Western Art (2001)
- NEW! Encyclopedia of Aesthetics (4 vols, ed. Michael Kelly, 1998)
- NEW! Concise Oxford Dictionary of Art Terms (Michael Clarke and Deborah Clarke, 2001)

UNPARALLELED COVERAGE

- 45,000 signed articles on every aspect of the visual arts from prehistory to the present day, from architecture to metalwork and movements to museums
- Extensive coverage of world art offering unparalleled depth of information covering civilizations and cultures
- Contributions from over 6,700 scholars from 120 countries
- 21,000 biographies of artists, architects, patrons, collectors, dealers, theorists, writers, and scholars searchable by name, birth/death dates, place of origin/activity, and occupation
- 500,000 searchable bibliographical citations
- More than 5,000 art images and line drawings displayed in the text of articles, including 2,000 new images from the Metropolitan Museum of Art, 500 images of modern and contemporary art, and 100 new images from Art Images for College Teaching
- More than 40,000 image links to museums, galleries and other art sites
- Direct links from biographies to other online resources, including the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography
- Partnership links from Grove Art Online articles to ARTstor and Art Resource
- Learning Resources include lesson plans from MoMA, timelines of world art, and thematic guides

Now available at your library!